Katherine Reedy Joins Attorney General's Office

(Phoenix, Ariz. – Feb. 22, 2007) Attorney General Terry Goddard today announced the addition of Katherine Reedy as a public relations project specialist in the Community Services Program of the Attorney General's Office.

Reedy will work primarily with non-profit organizations and rural media to inform and educate the public on consumer protection issues such as identity theft, predatory lending and elder abuse. She will also be responsible for building relationships with members of local communities who are most affected by consumer fraud. Reedy can be reached at 602-542-7718.

Reedy's previous experience includes developing a statewide youth voter turnout campaign for a national organization and working with a local media firm. Reedy holds a Bachelor of Science degree in political science and a Bachelor of Arts degree in religious studies from Arizona State University.

All general media inquiries regarding the Attorney General's Office should continue to be directed to Press Secretary Andrea Esquer at 602-542-8019.
